

Petals if fused, extent of fusion

This refers to the extent of fusion of the petals, where they are partly to completely fused, or of the perianth where the calyx and corolla are not clearly differentiated.

Copyright © CSIRO 2020, all rights reserved.

FL60 fused for more than half their length

FL61 fused for less than half their length

Web edition hosted at <https://apps.lucidcentral.org/rainforest>