

Sepals if fused, extent of fusion

Where the calyx and corolla are not clearly differentiated, use the corolla characters for the perianth.

This refers to the extent of fusion of the sepals, where they are partly to completely fused. See FL37 help image for examples.

FL39 fused for more than half their length

FL40 fused for less than half their length

Web edition hosted at <https://apps.lucidcentral.org/rainforest>