

Cataphylls presence

Cataphylls are small scale leaves or leaf-like structures which do not develop into true leaves. They usually appear between the cotyledons and the first true leaves but they can also appear at other positions on the seedling.

Copyright © CSIRO 2020, all rights reserved.

S29 present

not illustrated

S30 absent

Web edition hosted at <https://apps.lucidcentral.org/rainforest>